

CONPA affirms to strengthen Naga unity

April 2, 2015

DIMAPUR, APRIL 2 (MExN): The first meeting of the Committee on Naga Political Affairs (CONPA), a committee formed under the aegis of the Naga Hoho to work for Naga Unity, Reconciliation and Settlement of the Indo-Naga issue was held at Hotel Saramati, Dimapur on April 1.

A press note from CONPA informed that the committee resolved to reach out to all stake holders in Nagas lands across “artificial boundaries” to understand each other better for building trust and understanding amongst the Naga People. It further affirmed to strengthen cordial relationship amongst all Naga tribes and organizations and pursue the work of unity among all Naga political groups simultaneously with initiatives and programs for early settlement of the Indo- Naga Issue.

The committee also resolved to support the Ceasefire Agreements of various Naga political groups with the Government of India (GOI). It then appreciated the achievements and continuous endeavor of the Forum for Naga Reconciliation (FNR) to bring unity and reconciliation amongst the Naga Political Groups.

The CONPA appealed to all Naga political groups to “reflect and value the utmost desire of the Naga People for Unity and Reconciliation and wholeheartedly work to achieve the same.” It further urged state parliamentarians to sort out their internal differences with an open mind and collectively work for development and providing good governance to the Nagas.
